ELOPEMENT OF A CLERGYMAN—WHO THE PARTIES ARE,

The telegram has announced that a prominent clergyman of New York, the Rev. Mr. Cook, had eloped with one of his flock, leaving behind a wife and two children.—The New York Commercial gives the following particulars:

The church at the altar of which the reverend gentleman ministered is a Methodist Episcopal one, and is situated in West Seventh street. The congregation is a very fashionable one, composed of some of our wealthiest citizens. The society is one of the most prosperous in the city, and its offerings for charitable and other purposes have always been very large.

The pastor mixed up in the affair is named Cook. He has been but a short time connected with the church, having been stationed there last spring by the annual conference. He is a man of pleasing address, good looking, and not more than thirty years of age. He is also a fine speaker, and has a good pulpit presence. He was a general favorite with his flock, very few of whom, even under the circumstances, credit his alleged elopement. The young lady who, as alleged, has gone off with the Rev. Mr. Cook, is young and unmarried.—She belongs to one of the first families up town, though her name for the present is not made public. She is very pretty in face and figure. She had been a Sunday school teacher for a short time, and was always a devoted attendant upon the church, being punctual not only at the Sunday services, but also at the class and prayer meetings.

The intimacy between the clergyman and the fair lamb of his flock had been noticed by many, and some of the allusions thereto were not very flattering. The comments reached the ears of the lady herself, but she treated them with the utmost disdain, pronouncing them groundless slanders.—Even her mother remonstrated with her at her carelessness in affording opportunity for the circulation of such reports.

Things continued in this way for some weeks, until the rumors became common talk. This appears to have brought matters to a crisis. Thursday evening the clergyman complained of being unwell, and informed the family that he would repair to his study and there seek repose. He also had a sermon to prepare for Sunday, and he desired to be uninterrupted. It is supposed that during this time he was engaged in packing his trunk, which has mysteriously disappeared along with the owner.—This trunk was called for and quietly taken away without exciting any remarks. He was with his family all day on Friday.—Early in the evening he put on his hat and overcoat, and telling his wife that he would soon return, took his departure, as she believed to pay a visit to one of his congregation. The hours passed wearily by and he came not. Fearing some accident had befallen him, the wife became almost distracted, and sent messengers in every direction, but could discover no traces of his whereabouts. Nothing has since been seen or heard of him.

While the above events were transpiring a lady, closely veiled, was seen to enter a carriage on Seventh street. The vehicle drove a block or so, when a gentleman entered, and the driver whipped up his horses and the carriage with its occupants was soon out of sight. By Sunday morning the fact of the elopement became known to the members of the church. When the hour for divine service arrived the pastor was not at. An excuse was made for his absence and a stranger took his place.

The family of the erring man are, as well may be imagined, in great distress. He He leaves a wife and two beautiful children. His domestic relations had been always of the happiest nature. It is believed the parties have gone to Europe, having taken passage in Saturday's steamer. This is a mere matter of conjecture, however, and nothing definite is known on this point. The lady has some acquaintances in the West, but it is not likely she has gone there.

[From the Petersburg Courier, Jan. 1.]

ASSASSINATED—MURDER OF A VIRGINIAN BY A PARDONED PENITENTIARY DESPERADO.

We are permitted to copy the following from a private letter from a gentleman in Brunswick county, Va., to a relative in this city. It speaks for itself:

DEAR ——: I write to you to-day at the request of your sister, who is deeply distressed in consequence of the death of her husband, who was shot and killed by that desperado, Dr. Lewis, on Christmas Eve, the 24th instant.

John R. Carroll, who married a daughter of Mrs. Parrish, with whom Lewis lives, took out a peace warrant against him on account of threats which Lewis had made against his life, and had John Burwell Drummond appointed special constable to execute it. John, knowing the desperate character of the man, summoned several of his neighbors to accompany him, but enjoined upon them not to use harsh measures until he gave orders to do so, as he wished to arrest Lewis without the shedding of blood. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Friday last they met Lewis and his boon companion, McGiffin, in the road near Dr. Powell's store. Lewis and McGiffin, seeing the company and suspecting their object, dismounted from their horses and protected themselves—or rather Lewis protected himself—behind some pine trees, there being a cluster of them at that spot; but in dodging from tree to tree kept his carbine pointed at the company. The nature of the warrant was made known to him but he refused to surrender, and assumed a more hostile attitude. Benjamin Spence, seeing the danger that threatened them, presented his gun and asked John to allow him to fire, but the permission was refused, and the next moment Lewis, after having taken good aim fired at John Drummond, killing him instantly. The ball entered his left breast in front, and passing entirely through, came out under his right shoulder blade. He remarked as he fell, "I am a dead man," and immediately expired.

In the confusion of the moment Lewis made his escape, and has not yet been captured.

An octogenarian says: "I was born at the wrong time. When I was a young man, young men were of no account. Now I am old, I find old men are of no account.

CARPET-BAG VILLAINY.

The correspondence between the carpet-baggers, Sweet, Heaton and Tourgee, which we have just published, will show the people yet the necessity of ridding the State of these carpet-bag office holders. Heaton is member of Congress, Sweet, State Senator from Craven, and Tourgee disgraces the Superior Court Bench. Sweet has endorsed Tourgee as an honest man who will not lie, and Tourgee says that himself, Sweet and Heaton, behind the Speaker's desk, concocted the clause in the constitution, intented to enable the Legislature to hold four years instead of two, and that was the purpose and design of this trio of Constitution makers.

If Tourgee be a man of truth, as Sweet seems disposed to give him credit for, then Sweet and Heaton sided in perperrating a fraud and a cheat upon the people. We do not say this is so, but state the proposition in order to magnify the converse, namely, if Heaton and Sweet did not aid in framing this fraud and cheat upon the people, then Tourgee lies. Nor do we say this is so, but the statement of each is before the public for a verdict; the public are bound to decide one way or the other.—Either Tourgee, Heaton and Sweet did go behind the Speaker's desk and concoct the fraud, in which case Sweet and Heaton have falsified the facts, or they did not do so, in which case Tourgee has falsified the facts. There is the alternative, and there is no "rubbing it out."

That Tourgee was a man of very unreliable character was clearly shown by the lamented Governor Worth to Gen. Canby, nearly three years ago; it was proved by white and black, Republicans and Democrats, and also by the declaration of Judge Dick. It was a matter of such public notoriety that even members of his own party shrunk from defending him.

The Governor, who certainly has a chance to know the whole set, seems to have passed by the parties to this controversy, and taken to his bosom, as favorites and confidants, Littlefield and Estes, by which action he shows that he considers them the more reliable, although laboring under the mild imputation of fraud and swindling.

But apart from all this, Tourgee's letter is sufficient, to our mind, to place him in a position that no honorable man would like to occupy. Let Heaton and Sweet insist on Tourgee being a man of truth; just so far as they are correct, it goes to implicate them in the charge involved in his version of the manipulation of the tenure of-office clause of the Constitution, and attempting an infamous imposition on the people of the State.

ATTEMPT AT MURDER.

We are called upon, as a public journalist to chronicle another outrage in Orange County.

On Thursday night last, a most brutal attempt was made upon the life of Dr. Montgomery, of Alamance. Captain John Berry, lately deceased, lived two miles east of Hillsboro; his son-in- law, Dr. D. A. Montgomery, came to visit and attend him in his last illness. The Doctor took a walk about seven o'clock on Thursday evening; he had not gone two hundred yards from the house, along one of the most public roads of the County, when he was assailed by an assassin, who rose from the corner of the fence and gave him a severe blow with a club, and then began stabbing at him with a knife. The Dr. gave the assassin a blow on the head with his walking cane, which stunned him for a moment.

The assassin clinched the Doctor, striking him at the same time with his knife, his most deadly blow was warded off by the Doctor's watch, which now bears the marks of the knife. But for his watch receiving the blow, the assassin would have slain him. The resistance and fight of the Doctor was so determined that the felon fled, leaving the marks of his fingers on the Doctor's face and the marks of his knife upon his clothes. The wounds of the Doctor, however, are not of a serious character.

The murderers of Bialock are in jail; Bialock was murdered on Christmas night, within fifty yards of the Bench upon which Judge Tourgee sat when he set aside two several verdicts of a jury, convicting a negro of larceny, in a case so clear that no doubt rested on the minds of the jury.

There is hardly another community in the State, nor in christendom, that would not take the Bialock murderers in hand, and not wait for the slow progress of the law to execute them.

We trust the Ku Klux will not interfere with the prisoners, but give Tourgee an opportunity to set aside the verdict of the jury, if he shall be so inclined.

We know it will furnish another occasion for the other secret organization, through the Standard, to boast that the Governor's proclamation has quieted the Ku Klux. It may be humiliating for one secret organization to bear such taunts from another, but we trust they will bear it patiently. The murderers are league men, the Judge to try them is a league man, bound to each other by horrid, black oaths. Tourgee being an ex President of the League, may set the verdict aside, when they are convicted, the man who can write such a letter as Tourgee's letter to Sweet, can do anything. We say again we hope the Ku Klux will let the law take its course, for it is evident that the cowardly leaders of the Radical party are seeking to get up blood shed and strife between the two races, and they look upon it as the only means of perpetuating their power.

RISLEY'S FERTILIZER.

We give below the composition of an excellent fertilizer, said to be but little inferior to Peruvian guano for some crops, and a great deal cheaper. The gentleman who furnishes it assures us he found it a great improver of old worn-out lands.

First prepare, at proper seasons a quantity of swamp muck, by hauling it out where it will dry.

Then take 7 barrels of this dry muck,

1	"	wood ashes,
1	"	ground bones,
½	"	ground plaster,

and mix all well together. Next take 50 pounds common salt,

50	"	glauber salts,
50	"	sulphate ammonia,
50	"	nitrate of soda,

Dissolve these in a barrel of water, and add the first mixture. Mix all well together by sifting through a screen or riddle. Use the compost just as you would guano.

A portion of the ingredients are very easily procured, the others may be had of Morgan & Risley, wholesale Druggists, New York, who keep large quantities of the articles to sell for this purpose, and consequently sell them cheap. The composition, though nearly equal to Peruvian guano, does not cost one fourth the sum.

Let some of our farmers try this experiment and report the result to the annual meeting, of the State Agricultural Society, at the next Fair.

ADVANTAGES OF NORTH CAROLINA.

We consider the present an opportune time to reproduce the following extract of an address of Hon. Wm. D. Kelly, to his constituents at Philadelphia, on his return from his Southern tour, some two years since:

MY FRIENDS:—I saw during my trip a country upon which the Almighty has, with most lavish hand, bestowed His richest material gifts. * * * Let me speak specially of North Carolina, because, as it is equally true of Virginia, peverty has driven hundreds of thousands of her native citizens into exile. My friends, North Carolina is the most beautiful and richest portion of God's earth, upon which my vision or feet have ever rested. You know that she produces cotton, rice, indigo, tar, pitch, turpentine, and superior timber. You know that her soil and climate are adapted to the cereals, wheat, corn, rye, buckwheat and oats. But you probably do not know that that State, long known as the Rip Van Winkle of the Union, from which more than fifty thousand free white people have fled to the two States of Indiana and Illinois, is the land of wine and honey, the apple and peach, the fig and pomegranate, all of which I saw prospering in open field, and under the most artless culture. Its native vines made the fortune of Longworth, who carried cuttings thence. The wine producing vineyards of Western Pennsylvania, around the base and on the Islands of Lake Erie, and scattered through Missouri, are from the cuttings taken from the native vines of North Carolina.

The Catawba, the Lincoln, the Isabella, and richer than all, the Scuppernong, of which as yet Eastern North Carolina has the monopoly. There it grows spontaneously as a weed.

The woods and hill sides trem with the richest honey-bearing flowers, and the bees invite you to put up but a rude box, that they may reward your kindness with the sweetest treasure. There is not a vegetable we produce that will not thrive in North Carolina, and under these abounding stores of Agricultural wealth, a bed ranging from forty to one hundred miles wide, across the entire State, is richly underlaid with gold.

My friends, some of you, tired of city life, may think of emigrating. To such I say, put not a thousand or fifteen hundred miles between your families and their old homes by going to the distant West or Northwest. There is more genial climate, and a country as rich and beautiful, within a few hundred miles of your home, where you can buy agricultural and mineral lands at from $2 to $5 an acre; in which you can buy land almost contiguous to towns destined, under the influence of freedom, soon to be large cities, whose Railroad connections are already established, at from $5 to $15 an acre. In this region your skill as machinists will be of immense value. Many of the rich gold and copper mines of North Carolina have already passed into the possession of Northern men, and are being worked by the most approved machinery.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE—THE MAN WHO WAS BLOWN TO SEA IN AN OPEN BOAT RECOVERED.—We published last week an account of a man being blown out to sea through New Inlet in an open boat from alongside of the steamship Lucile, on the night of Saturday the 1st instant. This man, Schuyler Hooper, we are pleased to record, has again reached the land, being blown ashore on Cape Lookout two or three days after his misfortune. He was found in an exhausted condition, but has since been fully restored. The Collector at Beaufort, writing under date of the 7th instant, states these facts, and also that Hooper is anxious to return here, and is in need of clothes and wishes money from his employers with which to return. His escape is very remarkable and his delivery from a horrible death indeed miraculous. The boat is still ashore on Lookout where it was stranded with its exhausted occupant.—Wil. Journal.

GIN-HOUSE BURNING IN PITT.—A friend sends us the following account of a late successful incendiary attempt in Pitt:

"The gin-house and screw belonging to Col. W. M. King, of Pitt, was consumed by fire on the night of the 5th inst. Col. King had about twenty-five bales of his own cotton, not picked at the time, with a very large quantity of seed, and about ten bales belonging to other parties. Several bales lying around the screw were badly damaged. The gin was run by steam, but these had not been any fire about the house in thirty hours, and, the house was fired at the back end, there being about two bales of cotton picked, lying light as fell from the gin. The flames spread very rapidly, and the house was soon consumed. The loss is estimated to be about $5,000."

It will be seen by notice to our advertising columns that Mr. King offers a reward of five hundred dollars for any information leading to the apprehension and conviction of the incendiary. It is to be hoped that the rascal may be caught and feel the full extent of the law.—Tarboro Southerner.

Mr. Moore, of Chowan for the Committee on Finance reported a substitute for the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Cumberland to levy a special tax for the support of the poor and favorably upon the bill for the relief of certain Sheriffs.

The substitute for the bill in reference to the Commissioners of Cumberland was adopted and the bill passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 71 nays 2.

Mr. Moore took the floor and advocated the adoption of the amendments and the passage of the bill.

Mr. Downing opposed the bill on the ground that the funds now in the Treasury could not be applied in any other way than that directed by law, and that part of the public moneys appropriated to the expenses of the State Government had been exhausted, therefore, the financial condition of the State did not justify this indulgence. He moved to indefinitely postpone the bill.

TERRIBLE PANIC IN A CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The Saint Philomena Catholic Church, on Pearl street, between Pike and Butler, was the scene of unusual interest during yesterday morning. It was a great day for the German Catholics, as Father M. A. Trebbe was to be consecrated a Bishop, and made successor to Bishop Carrell, of Covington, lately deceased. The church was crammed with people of the Catholic faith, from this city, Covington, and Newport.—The ceremonies were highly interesting, and solemnized after the usual custom, with Bishop Rosecrans officiating. The Arion Society, of this city, one of our best amateur musical organizations, under the conductorship of Professor H. G. Andres, with a chorus of over eighty voices, were grandly singing the Coronation Mass, when the solemn and quiet event was confusedly interrupted by some one in the gallery crying out an alarm of the giving away of the galleries. For a few moments the utmost confusion and excitement prevailed. The alarm was no sooner given than hundreds of lips echoed it. The immense audience plunged, swayed, and rushed towards the doors. Several persons leaped from the galleries to the floor below, falling in among the swaying mass, and for some seconds the cries and excitement were terrible.—Women fainted, children screamed, men and boys were losing ground, and being crushed and trampled upon by the panic-stricken assemblage. Two women and one man jumped from a side window upon a shed, and then clambered to the ground, running from the scene with countenances bearing a deathly paleness. In all the crowd there was but one person who evinced control, a young man in the gallery who addressed his neighbors, assuring them that the alarm was false, which was the fact. The alarm was given from the gallery, and was supposed to have been started by some fiend in human shape with the deliberate purpose of creating a panic. It is a pity that the guilty party cannot be made to suffer for the mischief created.—It is a fortunate matter that nobody was killed, and very remarkable that no dangerous injuries were sustained. We have heard of but two persons who were even severely injured. One was a Mrs. McNamara, of Newport, who suffered a broken arm, and the other an old gentleman living in the vicinity of the church, who was trampled upon and bruised and cut. The St Philomena Church is one of the veteran edifices of the city, and old citizens may remember the falling of its steeple during a storm some twenty years ago. The consecration services were interrupted probably twenty minutes, when the agitation passed away and the services lasted until noon.

THE COAST SURVEY PARTY.—Capt. Nes and Dr. Hergesheimer, of the Coast Survey party in North Carolina, in company with a few gentlemen of this city, visited the entrance to our river on the revenue cutter W. H. Seward yesterday. No actual survey was made. Nothing more than a simple visit to the scene being done. The Engineers return to-day and will proceed to examine minutely what is known as Swash Channel and the rip at Main Bar. The object is to ascertain and note the changes made since the last survey, and report to the Superintendent at Washington. We hope that the appropriation by Congress will soon follow upon the report.—Wil. Journal Jan. 13.

PUBLIC MEETING IN WARRENTON.

At a public meeting of the citizens of Warren county, at the Court House, in Warrenton on Wednesday, the 5th day of January, 1870, according to previous notice, on motion, Thomas A. Montgomery, Esq., was appointed Chairman, and E. C. Woodson, Esq., Secretary. After the meeting was duly organized and its objects had been briefly explained by the chairman, a motion was made by William Eaton that the chairman be authorized to appoint a committee of five persons to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, which resolution was adopted. The chairman, in conformity with this resolution, appointed William Eaton, Thomas J Pitchford, Wharton J. Green, Edward H. Plummer and Walter A. Montgomery. The committee retired and in a few moments reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

1st. Resolved, That we decidedly and strongly disapprove of the extravagance of the Legislature, its recklessness in contracting millions of debt, and its wasteful and profligate expenditure of public money, at a time when rigid economy was highly necessary, and the onerous burdens which it has imposed, and as there is every reason to apprehend, is about to be imposed upon the impoverished tax-payers of North Carolina.

2nd. That the individuals who have control of the State Government have almost ruined the credit of the State, and in the opinion of this meeting will completely do so, unless the people shall confide their interests to more competent and faithful hands; and that a change of our public servants in North Carolina is absolutely necessary to the best interests of the State, as well as to her character and honor.

3rd, That the utter disregard of merit and qualification which has been recently manifested in almost all appointments and elections under our State Government has sullied the reputation of the State, and has been injurious to her welfare.

4th, That any attempt by the present Legislature to prolong its power for two years would be a violation of the constitution, a monstrous usurpation and a gross and palpable fraud on the people of North Carolina.

5th, That the Militia bill, which has been recently passed in our State Senate, is marked in every line by the iron heel of oppression; that it strikes at the root of of every principle of civil liberty, every maxim of good government, and every precept of humanity and justice; and that if it shall become a law, there will be more of freedom on the shores of the Bosphorus or on the banks of the Vistula than there will be in our old and honored State, where the cradle of the American Revolution was first rocked in 1775.

6th. That a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, during a period of peace like the present, would be an atrocious outrage upon the principles of civil liberty, a signal violation of the Constitution, and a deep and lasting disgrace upon all who may have any connection with such a flagitious abuse of power.

7th. That we will most cheerfully welcome to our county and our State all bona fide settlers, who come amongst us to avail themselves of the many resources of profit and happiness which North Carolina presents to the inhabitants of less favored regions; and will be pleased if it should be in our power to facilitate their efforts to acquire a home among us.

On motion of Col. Wharton J. Green, it was unanimously resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Raleigh SENTINEL, Wilmington Journal, Ridgeway Press, Roanoke News and Warrenton Gazette.

TOBACCO FACTORY.—A company has been organized with a capital of about $10,000 to put up a Tobacco Factory in our town. This factory will be in operation by Spring, and we know of one or two others that will be at work here before long. The soil of this county is admirably adapted to the growth of tobacco, and it is one of the most paying crops that can be raised, and we hope our farmers will all put in as much as they are able to tend.—An acre of tobacco well tended will nett from $75 to $100. This certainly should be an inducement to raise it instead of scratching over so much corn that scarcely pays for the labor expended.—Winston Sentinel.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

6th. It is a Mutual Insurance Company ninety four per cent of the Profits are divided among the insured, on the contribution plan, and as money commands higher rates of Interest in the South than North or East, the probability is almost certain that the dividends will exceed those of Northern Companies, thus reducing the premiums to their lowest actual cost.

7th. Under the Charter of this Company, Polices of insurance are not subject to the debts of the Insured. Polices in favor of a wife or children are payable to them or their guardians direct.

8th. This company issues policies guaranteeing six per cent. compound interest in addition to the insurance of the amount insured. Parties about to insure would do well to examine the tables and plans of this company before insuring in any other company. THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO does not desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

New Advertisements.—Hyman and Dancy, Norfolk, Va., make an important announcement to farmers. Read it.

Pianos and Sewing Machines of the best quality and make at E. Via's.

Five dollars reward, A. H. Galloway.

Temperance Lecture.—The Lecture, or Address of Rev. Mr. Pritchard, at Commons Hall, Friday evening last, was in that gentleman's happiest vein; there was a large audience present, of ladies and gentlemen, who highly enjoyed the pleasure of the occasion.

Thanks.—We are requested by Mrs. H. W. Miller, to tender he thanks to the firemen who were so promptly at hand, on the occasion of the late threatened fire at her residence.

Welcome.—About twenty Northern gentlemen have arrived in the city, within a few a days, prospecting for farms—we bid them welcome, and hope they may find locations to please them.

Masonic.—There will be a regular meeting of Hiram Lodge, No. 40, this, Monday, evening, at the usual hour.

R. A. M.—Companions of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, take notice; there will be a Regular Convocation on Tuesday evening, at the usual time and place.

Honors to a Raleighite.—We are pleased to learn that our young townsman, P. F. Pescud, Jr., son of our old friend P. F. Pescud, Sr., was recently elected President of the Jefferson Society of the University of Virginia, over an older student, after a very animated contest. (Wonder if this promising young North Carolinian is preparing for a life of honor, to shed its lustre upon some sister State, as has been the case so often heretofore with others.)

Death of Judge Ruffin.—Information reached this city on Saturday evening, of the death of Judge Thomas Ruffin, at his home in Hillsboro', which occurred on Friday night. Judge Ruffin attained to an advanced age, having reached, we should judge, nearly, if not quite, four score years. In his day he filled a large space in the public eye and the public heart, not only in his own State, but beyond her borders. He was esteemed, honored and loved by the people of the State, by whom he will be wept and remembered, now that he is gone.

But we leave to some abler pen the task of writing a more appropriate obituary of this great and good man.

Miss Dix.—We mentioned, on Friday morning, the arrival in Raleigh, of Miss Dix, and her sojourn with Dr. Grissom, at the Insane Asylum. On Saturday, we had the pleasure, at the kind invitation of the Doctor, of dining with Miss Dix. It is the first time we had met her. We found her a very unassuming lady, of easy manners and great earnestness in conversing on all subjects relating to the amelioration of the condition of the unfortunate. She expresses much concern in regard to the limited accommodations for the unfortunate insane of the State, but is despondent of doing anything to remove the difficulty, in view of the depressed state of our financial affairs.

She visited the Wake county jail, a few days ago, and was not favorably impressed with the cleanliness of that institution. She thinks some reform is immediately demanded, in this respect, not only for decency's sake, but to prevent the destruction of health and life.

The Strike.—Owing to facts we have not space now to explain, but which we think of a justifiable nature, many of the Telegraph strikers have returned to their places, among them Messrs. Starke and Bragg, of this city. We will merely mention here that there have appeared evidences of trickery among some of the strikers, having a tendency to supplant the faithful, and supply their places by the unfaithful. We shall hereafter have our regular dispatches, as formerly.

The "Rescues."—There will be a called meeting of "Rescue Steam Fire Engine Company, No. 1," at Douglas Bell's Store, this, Monday, evening, at 7 o'clock; all members are urgently requested to attend.

The uniforms for the Company will be furnished at the meeting, and the members are requested to come prepared to pay for the same.

Just Out.—Cherry Pectoral Troches, superior to all others, for Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats, Bronchitis and Horseness. None so pleasant, none cure so quick.

Sudden Death.—Mr. Daniel McKinnon, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Robeson county, fell dead in a fit of appoplexy at Shoe Heel, on Saturday last. Mr. McKinnon had reached the advanced age of 71 years and was greatly esteemed.—Wil. Journal, Jan. 13.

SUPREME COURT.

Friday, Jan. 14th.—Court assembled at the usual hour, all the Justices being present. Cases from the 5th District were called, as follows:

Covington ex. Ingram, from Anson. Argued by Hon. A. S. Merrimon, and J. M. McCorkle, Esq. for Plaintiff, Hon. W. H. Battle, for Defendant.

This was an interesting case and ably argued by counsel on both sides. It involved the question, whether a party, who had paid in Confederate money for a tract of land, sold on credit before the war under decree of a Court of Equity, can be required, by rule only, to show cause why he should not now pay the difference between the value of the depreciated Confederate Currency paid into office by him, the purchaser, and the amount he had contracted to pay in good money.

Devries & Co. ex. E. L. Phillips and Moses Haywood, from Cumberland, attachment. Plaintiff attached a certain stock of goods, in the immediate possession of Moses Haywood, as the property of the defendant, Phillips. Haywood filed an "interpleader"—the jury in the Court decided in Haywood's favor, and there was an appeal to this Court. The main point discussed turned on the Sheriff's evidence, which was as follows: "When I levied on the goods, Haywood stated that he had sold the goods to another person." The counsel for the attaching creditors contended that Haywood was estopped by his declaration to the Sheriff. Bart. Fuller, Esq., and A. S. Merrimon argued the case for the Plaintiffs; Neill McKay, E-q. and Hon. Sam'l. F. Phillips, for Defendants. The arguments of counsel were marked with great ability and learning.

The following gentlemen of the Bar, were in attendance during the day, viz:

Messrs. Battle, Phillips, Merrimon, Fuller, McCorkle, Faircloth, Smedes, Keogh, Neill McKay and W. McL. McKay.

Hons. Danl. M. Barringer, James M. Cloud, and Daniel Coleman, Sr., were among the spectators.

No opinion as yet delivered. Next week cases from the Third and Seventh Districts will be called. Court adjourned until Monday, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Saturday, Jan. 15.—Court assembled at the usual hour, and there being no business before the Court, it adjourned until Monday morning 10 o'clock, when causes from the third and seventh District will be regularly called and disposed of.

The Salem Press, which recently suspended publication, has been resumed under the management of the former firm, with Dr. G. W. Sites as associate Editor.

The Press having been taught a bitter lesson in advocating the extreme measures of Radicalism, is now repentant of past sins and places itself upon a liberal platform.

As an evidence of the sincerity of its repentance, we copy the following:

"That's Right.—We notice meetings are being held throughout the State denunciatory of the military bill now pending in the Legislature, as well as the movement among the members of that body to hold their seats for four instead of two years."

We congratulate the Press upon its happy conversion, and hope the day is not far distant, when the confession of faith will be complete, and full fellowship in the true fold accorded to it.

We give the Press a cordial welcome and wish it much success as long as it keeps upon the course which it seems to have marked out for itself.

Health's Best Defence.

"The weak caleth herbs," says St. Paul, so that eighteen hundred years ago the value of medicinal plants was appreciated. In the Old Testament botanical remedies are repeatedly recommended, but in no passage of sacred history is man recommended to swallow calomel, or blue pill, or any other mineral preparation. The sick were directed to eat herbs to strengthen them, to purify them, to heal them, to restore them. In that day the art of making vegetable extracts was unknown. The herbal medicines were mere infusions.

It was reserved for a later age to unite the sanitary essences of louis, aperient and antibilious roots, barks, and plants, with an active stimulant, and thus secure their rapid diffusion through debilitated or disordered system. The crowning triumph of this effective mode of concentrating and applying the virtues of medicinal vegetables was achieved in the production of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Never before had a perfectly pure alcoholic stimulant been combined with the expressed juices of the finest specifics of the vegetable kingdom. Never yet, though eighteen years have elapsed since its introduction, has this great restorative been equalled. It is taken at all seasons, in all climes, as the most potent safeguard against epidemics, as a protection against all unhealthy exhalations that produce debility or beget disease; as a remedy for intermittent and other malarious fevers; as an appetizer; as a sovereign cure for dyspepsia; as a general tonic and invigorant; as a gentle, painless aperient; as a blood depurent; as a nervine; as a cure for billious affections; as a harmless anodyne; and as the best defence of health under unfavorable circumstances, such as sedentary pursuits, undue bodily or mental exertion, hardship, privation and exposure.

PARSON BROWNLOW.

A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. World gives the following picture of this bald old man: There is a spectacle in the Senate which ought, perhaps, to receive, but which oftener repels, the commiseration of those who look upon it.—This is the palsied, perishing figure of Parson Brownlow. As regularly as the soon the almost completely helpless old man is assisted to his seat a hair cloth easy chair on the left of the Speaker—in which he reclines, trembling all over, and constantly, like a shaken jelly. Seen from the gallery, his swarthy face looks like that of a malignant Indian. His lips contort themselves unpleasantly, and his hands, twitching in every finger, remind one of a couple of enormous spiders crawling over his legs and along the arms of his chair. Once in a while the right hand makes a tremulous expedition to the desk in front, and returns with a handkerchief dangling between thumb and fingers.—Sometimes, with great effort, it carries a glass of water from the ridge of the desk to the old man's mouth. Part of the time he sits with a leg hoisted on a corner of the desk, or crossed over the opposite knee. He is never motionless. His eyes see and his ears attend to all that transpires. Whenever the debate is earnest, or an interesting questionis uppermost particularly if it concerns the South, or his own State of Tennessee—he listens to it as it were through every pore; the big dark veins on his temples grow bigger and darker; the desk shakes with the shaking of his leg; his hands clutch venomously at his trowsers, and the peculiar writhing of his lips make it appear as if he would give up all his life after that one moment, if for the moment he had strength to get on his feet, and pour forth as of old a flood of vituperation upon his enemies. But he has no strength left to speak, and was compelled the other day to have the personal explanation of his course in regard to recent political events in Tennessee, which he had prepared in manuscript, read by the clerk. Some expressions in it were abusive of Butler and other members of the House, and the Vice President stopped the reading. The emotion of the dying man in the easy chair so racked him at the juncture, that another Senator, pitying him, requested that solely on account of his feeble condition, the reading might be suffered to proceed. This was assented to. Had it been otherwise, perhaps the anger of the Parson would have consumed him where he sat.

Burglary Committed—Thieves Arrested and Lodged in Jail.—On the 26th Dec. 1869, a burglary was committed upon the residence of Mrs. Wells Draughan, near Whitakers Depot, of this county, and $300 in specie carried off.

Information was immediately lodged with Mr. J. K. Cherry, Constable of the District. After an examination by him suspicion was attached to certain negroes in Halifax, and the facts were sent over.

Ascertaining on Wednesday last that a horse had been bought at Enfield by a negro and paid for in Coin, Gold, the Sheriff had the man arrested and brought to the to the Store of Cherry & Pippen at Whitakers. On Thursday a trial was had before Justice J. H. Pippen, when the accused, in default of bail, was committed to jail.—The notorious Judge, of Enfield, who has recently qualified as an attorney in Halifax, appeared for the defence, and Messrs Whitaker and Branch for the prosecution.

A week previous two more parties had been apprehended and about $177,50 in gold had been recaptured.—Tarboro South ernor Jan. 13.

Mineral Wealth of the Country Back of Danville, Va.—Perhaps no portion of the United States is richer in mineral wealth than the border counties of Virginia and North Carolina back of Danville. We have a list carefully prepared by Capt. S. M. Deney, a Northern gentleman and a mineralogist of the finest attainments, and who, before the war, spent five years in personal observation and examination of this section of country. We have not space for the full list, but the following are some of the most valuable minerals:

Iron ore of every desirable species or kind, apparently boundless in quantity; authracite or stone coal; limestone, primitive, granular limestone, of the finest quality of white, gray, mottled and other colored marble; lead ore; copper ore; gold; manganese; plumbago, or black lead; native alum; saltpetre; fire brick clay; porcelain clay; potter's clay; pure white talc, or crude French chalk; itacolumite, or perfectly fire proof elastic sandstone and others, making thirty four varieties in all of minerals, besides twenty-one varieties of valuable rocks.—Danville Times

Cooking in a Still House.—An officer of the Revenue department having heard that a certain party was running a still without the authority of law, in an adjoining county, left here a few mornings since to ascertain the facts in the case. On arriving at the designated place, he proceeded to the still-house, and found it in full operation. But to hide the fact the party had converted it into a cook and wash house.

But the ruse wouldn't do. The still was seized and the poor fellow brought to grief.—Salisbury Examiner.

Rev. Dr. Hately Waddell, in a lecture in the City Hall, Glasgow, on the Psalms of David, submitted the following translation of the twenty third Psalm into Scotch:

1. The Lord is my herd, nae want sal fa' me.

2. He louts me tell lie among green howes; He airis me atowre by the lown waires.

3. He wankens my wa'gaen saul; He weises me roun' for His ain name's sake intil sight roddins.

4. Na! tho' I gang thro' the deid-mirk dail; e'en thar sal I dreid nae skaithin; for Yersel' are nar bye me; Yer stok an' yer staye hand me aye cheerie.

5. My buird Ye hae hanselled in face-o' my foes; Ye has drookit my head wi' oyle; my bicker is fu an' skallin'.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

The undersigned having thoroughly investigated the causes and cure of drunkenness produced by alcholic drinks, by the aid of medical science, and having demonstrated by practice upon individual cases to his entire satisfaction and that of others, that the propensity to alcholic drinks is a disease, and that it is curable, offers his services to that unfortunate class of his fellow citizens.

He will, for the present, remain in this city a few days, and letters addressed to him through the Post-office, will be promptly attended to.—The utmost privacy will be observed, and parties will indicate where he can communicate with them. He has no antidote—administers no nostrum which can be put up in packages, but treats the disease by personal investigation and prescriptions. He has treated a number of cases successfully, and has not to his knowledge failed in any case, where his advice and remedies have been observed. He makes no charge if he fails to cure.

The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO.

PRICE $60 PER TON OF 2,000 lbs., AT NORFOLK, VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Lebermen, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 640 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position gives the backward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, thus a saving of one hand to the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J. WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd & the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular saw Mill built by you. I can cut a line 14 in ches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 3,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.

Dec 23rd 1869. AL. RIDGE PARTIN.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double circular Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

PROSPECTUS
"PRIMITIVE BAPTIST."

WE PROPOSE TO RENEW THE PUBLICation of the "PRIMITIVE BAPTIST" upon the following terms, commencing, if we shall receive sufficient encouragement, in the month of January, 1870:

The "Primitive Baptist" will be published semi-monthly on every Thursday before the second and fourth Sundays in each month, twenty-four numbers constituting a volume—for One Dollar and Fifty Cents in greenbacks, or One Dollar in gold, payable, in all cases, in advance.

All moneys sent to us, properly mailed, are at our risk.

Any person furnishing us a club of five subscribers shall be entitled to six copies, and for two or more clubs, the same rates.

Those belonging to the old Baptist Church who desire the Primitive, and feel unable to pay for it, by informing us of the fact, shall have the paper sent to them gratis.

All Editors of newspapers in different States, who will give this Prospectus an insertion in their respective papers, will confer a favor upon us, and will receive our sincere thanks.

Persons who are willing to act as Agents for the paper, will please inform us.

We earnestly solicit contributions to the columns of the Primitive Baptist from the brethren and sisters who feel disposed to write.

To defend Gospel Truth, and the keeping separate Church and State in matters of religion, is our motto, but protect all.

The Primitive Baptist will be published in pamphlet form of 16 large pages of reading matter. We may reserve a few columns for a list of Agents, and for the insertion of interesting news deaths and marriages.

Editors of religious papers are respectfully requested to publish this Prospectus as a favor.

Persons who wish to become subscribers, are requested to send their names without delay, but are requested not to send the money until they receive the first number.

PRATTS "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,34
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, even at cost. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
